

Text Analysis: Quality of Life in Luzern

Introduction

For the opendata.ch hackathon challenge we explored the survey data collected as part of the program to find the quality of life in Luzern. Many methods were proposed such as; Cross correlation between variables, Finding the clusters within the data, PCA analysis, political and social participation and finally a word cloud on the comments provided by the public.

